

Calls for Letters to the Editor

On March 15, 2007 the Rocky Mountain News published the following article:

In search of revitalization

Article Link

Leaders want to spruce up the 16th Street Mall area...

The Partnership believes that our organization will be most effective if we speak with one voice in our demand for change and improvements to the core of Downtown. We ask you to join us in our efforts by responding to this article with a Letter to the Editor at the RMN. Topics for your consideration could include:

- Safety and the perception of safety in the core of Downtown
- The Downtown streetscape
- Poorly maintained vacant buildings/storefronts and the effect this has on your property/business/attraction.

In order to respond, please send a brief letter with you comments/thoughts/opinions to:

Mail: Letters to the Editor
Rocky Mountain News
101 W. Colfax Ave., Suite 500,
Denver, CO 80202
Fax: (303) 954-2568
E-mail: letters@RockyMountainNews.com

Shorter letters are considered first for print publication and edited least. Submissions must include writer's name, address and daytime phone number. Letters must be original, not copied from another source.

Please feel free to contact Sarah McClean, smcclean@downtowndenver.com or 303.571.8214 if you have any questions. If you are able to send a letter to the editor, please let us know so we can keep a copy in our files.

